Lesson 24 A Wonderful Trip

Story time

Daisy lives on a small farm. Her parents are farmers. Daisy likes to help on the farm. She also loves to go for walks.

One sunny morning, Daisy goes for a walk. She walks very, very far. Then it gets cloudy. A great big wind comes and takes Daisy into the sky. The wind takes Daisy away to a far place. Daisy looks around. She is not on her family's farm. She does not know this place.

Daisy feels tired. She sits under a tree and meets a little bird.

"Where am I?" asks Daisy. "You are in TazLand," says Birdie. "Oh! Is that far from Small Farm?" Daisy asks. "Yes. It's very far. Only Magic Taz can help you get back there," answers Birdie.

"I have to go back home. How can I find Magic Taz?" says Daisy sadly. "That's easy! I can take you there. I am a bird, but I can't fly. I will ask Magic Taz to help me fly," says Birdie. Now Daisy is happy. "Okay! Let's go!" she says.

On their way to visit Magic Taz, Daisy and Birdie meet a horse. Her name is Honey. But Honey can't run. So the three go to visit Magic Taz.

On their way, they stop at a lake to drink some water. They see a fish next to the lake. His name is Sam. Sam can't swim. The four go together.

After traveling so long, Daisy and the animals finally meet Magic Taz.

Taz says the magic words and POOF. Sam can swim. Honey can run. Birdie can fly. But Daisy isn't at home. She is still in TazLand.

"Dr. Taz, I am still here. May I go home now?"

"Yes. Do you see those red shoes on your feet?"

Just tap your red shoes together and you will be home before you can count to three."

"Okay. I'll try it!"

Daisy closes her eyes, taps her shoes and counts: One... two... Then she opens her eyes and she sees her family and her small farm. She is so happy!
